Dear Diary,

Today was just the normal I had expected, but on the way back from work I noticed something strange.

While coming back, I noticed that everyone on the street were mostly or completely involved in their phones. This has got me thinking on the ill effects of such behaviour. Mobile phones have caused a great change in how humans communicate. ✓ Everyone's lifestyle has been changed. But ~~extensive~~ over usage of it can be very harmful. ¶ While walking on the street, our eyes are not on the road, which can cause serious accidents. The signals coming from mobiles can also harm us.

Abhinav IX.B English Roll:27

4.5

After thinking for so long, I started to wonder if mobiles are worth all that. But I realized that if not for them, we would be very underdeveloped. So ~~at~~ what I concluded was that ~~even tho~~ we should all look out of the mobile screens more often. ✓

VII

1) a) It was Bismillah Khan's first trip abroad. to where?

1.5 b) The word from the extract is souvenirs.

2) a) 'He' in this passage refers to the man who comes to help the lost child. He is ~~asking~~ ^{offering} the lost child a ride on a horse.

2 b) The boy is crying for his parents, the man is trying to ~~confirm~~ comfort him by asking him for a ride.

3) i) The speaker of these lines is Evelyn Glennie.

2 ii) 'It' refers to the vibrations caused by sound.

VIII

- 1) In the story 'Adventures of Toto' the ~~the~~ grandmother, just like the grandfather is also an animal lover. We can ~~very~~ verify this statement, grandmother ~~gets~~ after accepting Toto in the house treats it with care. But the grandfather hides Toto from grandmother expecting that ~~she~~ she would fuss about it. This clearly shows that grandmother doesn't want to take up all the extra responsibility.
- 2) a) As mentioned in the poem, wind crumbles houses, doors, rafters, wood, bodies, lives and hearts, but wind also causes hurricanes, storms, cyclones.
- b) It shows how small and tiny humans are in the face of nature. It also depicts ~~the~~ how people react to problems in life.

- 3) In the story, the child knows that his parents would deny him everything he asked. But what they can provide him, the love and care, is nothing compared to materialistic things. Before he ~~to~~ was ~~lost~~, lost, he was happily happy and was looking around at the wonderful things at the fair. But on losing his parents, he starts panicking and runs hither and thither. When offered what he wanted previously, he refuses and wants only his parents. This shows how invaluable the things are compared to his parents.

IX

- 1) Toto was obviously not the pet that could be kept for long because of all the destruction he caused. They could not keep replacing everything that toto breaks and spoils. But keeping a pet is fun and gives a good experience. We will learn how to be ~~not~~ responsible for someone else. Pets also support us in times when we are not feeling well. But in the case of Toto, ~~even~~ ..

4.5 Not all ~~pets~~ all animals can ~~do~~ and be good pets. We can take an example, keeping a lion in your house as a pet is a bad idea. Lions behave rashly and cruelly. Lions need to be in the wild where they enjoy and are free. For a lion it is comfortable to be in the wild. But an animal like a dog ~~is~~ will be a good pet. Dogs naturally live among other humans. Dogs find it comfortable among humans. Humans also ~~find~~ would want a dog as a pet.
